What

Buddhism

This is Budithon, but you can call him Bud. He is the bud of a flower.

He likes the color

Red!

He likes the Sky and Sun!

He likes to live where the gardener takes him!

But he also likes his sister's fertilizer food...

and his mom's pet

worm...

and his dad's rock
collection...

But he never asked to take them, but what was so wrong with that?

He realized that what if people took the things he liked. And without asking? So he gave them back.

So, Bud will ask next time!

Bud

loves

many things, but

did he

ask to take them?
